

Zambia

Zambia has many National Parks including some of the very best that Africa has to offer.

With relatively few visitors and excellent game densities the principal National Parks of North and South Luangwa, Kafue and Lower Zambezi are real undiscovered gems any of which combine in a super flying safari circuit with Victoria Falls.

Victoria Falls are shared with Zimbabwe and are a base for all sorts of exciting activities based on the Zambezi River and surrounding area.

Zambia is particularly well known for its walking safaris which are possible in all the major parks and a great way to experience and learn about the African bush

The spectacular dry season game viewing in Zambia is much less expensive than neighbouring Botswana making it a great choice for clients on a smaller budget.

Highlights of Zambia:

- Spectacular Victoria Falls
- Canoeing and White water rafting on the Zambezi River
- Elephant Back Safaris at Victoria Falls
- Tiger Fishing on the Lower Zambezi
- Guided walks in South Luangwa and Kafue National parks

Zambia	Regular rain will have made the bush green and grass longer. Animals more difficult to locate and spread out	Rains continue and weather is warm with some sunshine. Many Camps are closed, bush is dense.	Rains continue and weather is warm with some sunshine. Many Camps are closed, bush is dense.	Rains less often but dense bush makes wildlife spotting difficult. Victoria falls at most spectacular	Clear blue skies and warm sunny days, nights cooler bush just starting to dry out. Early season bargains	Clear sunny days but cooler in the evenings. Game viewing good	Clear sunny days nights are cool, game viewing is now excellent. Whitewater rafting season begins.	Now much warmer during the day clear blue skies. The bush has dried out and the game viewing is excellent	Hot and dry with clear skies, the bush has dried out and game viewing is excellent	Very hot and bush completely dried out starting to become more humid. Outstanding game viewing	First rains are expected, still very hot and humid with outstanding game viewing	Regular thunderstorms mainly short showers followed by sunny periods game viewing is fairly good
